

Certificate of Conformance

This certifies that the materials or services (listed) conform with the documented contract/purchase order requirements and are in the quantity shown on the corresponding packing slip. Production inspection and test equipment are calibrated prior to use, and verified at scheduled intervals as required. All equipment calibrations are traceable to the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST).